

Tae Shin

Mr. Shin focuses his practice in corporate law, mergers & acquisitions, business taxation and business succession planning. He has represented closely held companies, individuals and corporations in transactions ranging from $200,000 to $40 million. Mr. Shin also handles matters involving executive compensation and estate planning.

Accomplishments

- Selected as a "Florida Rising Star" by Law & Politics magazine (2009, 2011)
- United States Army, Commissioned Officer
- United States Army Ranger
- Embedded Small Unit Tactical Advisor to Afghan National Army
- Light Infantry Rifle Platoon Leader
- Bronze Star Recipient

Professional Affiliations

- Greater Orlando Asian American Bar Association
- National Defense Industrial Association

Community Affiliations

- Habitat for Humanity Finance Committee, Orange County
- Asian American Chamber of Commerce

Admissions

- Florida (2005)

Education

- 2008 LL.M., University of Florida Levin College of Law, Taxation
- 2004 J.D., University of Florida Levin College of Law
 - cum laude
- 2001 B.S., Florida International University, Accounting
 - with honors
 - Beta Alpha Psi (Honorary Accounting Fraternity)

Languages Spoken

- Fluent in Korean